Especially for our new residents but also for those who may not know, we have a real gem here in New Albany, called the Jeanne B. McCoy Center for the Performing Arts. It is located at 100 West Dublin-Granville Road on the New Albany Schools complex.

It is a 786 seat theater where there is literally no bad seat in the house. There are separate rooms for other venues such as speakers, book reviews or receptions.

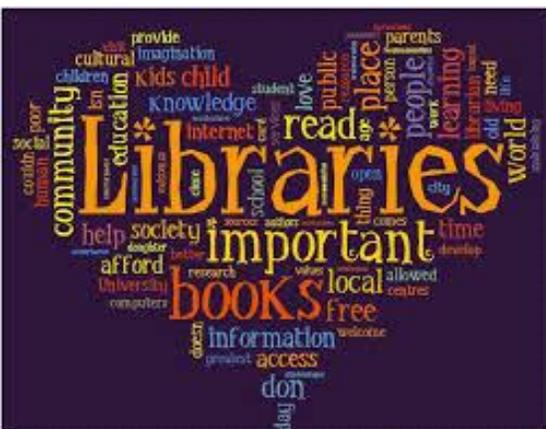

The main theater has hosted everything from a marvelous symphony to local bands and school events.

The Columbus Association for the Performing Arts (CAPA) now manages the Library Reminder

Don't forget that your Dominion Clubhouse has an excellent lending library filled with great book donations from your neighbors! It's all free and on the honor system.

Of course, donations of your used books are always gratefully accepted - just leave them next to the bookshelves.

Any library related questions may be addressed to Library Committee members; Sharon Miller or Roger Benjamin.

The end of warm Summer days makes it more appealing to curl up at home with a good book.

New Neighbors Update

By John Bradshaw

Steve & Connie Cordova moved into 6905

Keesee Circle from Pickerington on October 1 where they had a home for 36 years. They also have a home in Indianalantic, Florida, so you won't see them around when the cold weather and snow arrives.

Steve is originally from El Paso, TX and grew up in Los Angeles, graduated from Cal State Northridge, and served 20 years in the US Navy Supply Corps. After he retired from the Navy, he worked at Defense Supply Center in Columbus, as a supply system analyst and retired from that position to work for Electronic Data Systems, commuting weekly between Florida and Washington DC. When he retired from EDS, he worked from home as a consultant for the Defense Logistics Agency. Now, at long last, he is retired and enjoys watching international soccer matches, travel, and Sudoku.

Connie was born in New York City and grew up on Long Island. She graduated from New York State University, Plattsburgh, with a BS in education and a major in nursing. As an RN, she worked in hospital OR and ER, as a public health nurse in California, and as a school nurse and health teacher in Columbus suburban district, Hamilton Local, from where she retired in '98.

Scrapbooking, card making, crossword puzzles, and audible books are her main interests.

Steve's Navy career sent them to several duty stations stateside and 4 years in Bermuda, so they are pretty seasoned at packing and moving. San Diego, CA, Athens, GA, Long Beach CA, Annapolis MD, Bermuda, Charleston SC and finally Columbus.

They have three children, all living in Ohio. #1 son Stephen in Westerville, #2 son Scott in Worthington and daughter Nancy and family with 3 grandchildren in Avon, west of Cleveland.

They are very pleased to have chosen Dominion Club and are looking forward to meeting as many new neighbors as possible.

Keith and Dianne Goodwin, purchased the former residence of Lindy Knight at 7057 Camden Drive in August, 2014.

Keith and Dianne were born and raised in Columbus Ohio. They have three children and five grandchildren who all live in the Columbus area. Their primary residence is in Knoxville TN. They purchased the house on Camden so when they visit their family (which is OFTEN!) they have a place to stay and a home for the family to come to for the holidays. They have found it easier than for them to come to Knoxville to visit. The kids and grandkids have really busy lives!!

Keith is part of the administrative team at East Tennessee Children's Hospital. Dianne is a retired teacher. She did not seek a teaching position in Knoxville to have the flexibility to spend time in Ohio helping the kids and spoiling the grandchildren. Keith and Dianne are looking forward to getting settled in their new house and getting to meet other people in the community.

Time to change those spring wreaths made in April to something "fallish". Supplies needed:

- 1 18" Wire Wreath
- 2 to 3 spools of burlap ribbon 4" or 5" wide. A tighter weave requires a little more than 2 spools of ribbon.
- Scissors.
- Any fall adornments you might want. You can use a different color bow or some other fall picks.

Materials available at Walmart, Joann's, Michaels, or Hobby Lobby. Cost is $12 to $15.
